

Libuše Stárková,
Palacky University
Olomouc, Czech Republic

Libuse is the Associated Professor working at Medical Faculty Palacky University in Olomouc, Czech Republic. She has also extensive clinical experience working as child and adolescent clinical psychiatrist. Her interest is focused mainly on eating disorders, autistic spectrum disorders, and anxiety disorders.

She passed systematic training programme in CBT and obtained European Certificate in Anxiety and Mood Disorders (State University of Limburg/Maastricht) in 1995. Libuse has been involved in several national and also international research projects in psychiatry. She has been working as a member of board of Child psychiatric section of the Czech Psychiatric Society for several last years. Her motto is: a dialog is the base for everything.